A creative twist on traditional flavors

Rooted in Korea's Dangun myth,
We launched with Garlic and Mugwort flavored Kalphabets — now joined by everyone's favorite, Chocolate flavor.

Our Garlic Flavored Kalphabets are a slightly sweet but savory take on Korean garlic bread — a local favorite at Korean bakeries. Crisp, addective, and perfect with a cold beer (or just on their own).
Our Mugwort Flavored Kalphabets are crunchy, sweet and but also have subtle kick of Ssook (mugwort). A strong contender to take over the matcha craze.
After countless requests, we finally launched our Chocolate Flavored Kalphabets. Perfectly sweet, deeply snackable — the kind you'll keep reaching for again and again.

Mindful Business

We want everyone around the world to be able to enjoy Kalphabets. But every culture has its own dietary restrictions — from halal and kosher to veganism. The most universally acceptable format that can be consumed by almost any group of people is plant-based food.

Plant-based food also happens to be much more environmentally friendly as well as easy to import or export thanks to the lack of dairy, eggs, and other complex animal-based ingredients.

That's why we make Kalphabets from 100% plant based materials — so that everyone, everywhere can discover the fun side of food.
